Announcements:

Bob Lucas retires from the NACM on 10/15/09 after 49 years with the NACM. He also resigned his duties of Treasurer (now Julie Putman) and Roster/Membership (now Jeremy Keenan). Bob will continue to be a member of CFDD and has spent 14 years with this chapter. Bob was President of this CFDD chapter in 1990. We are still doing the "buck-a-book" program. Members will bring used books and put them on the back table. Any book on the table can be bought for $1.00!

The NACM Christmas baskets have been picked to be a Wine Basket, a Movies & Games Basket and a Sports theme Basket. We are asking members to start bringing donations now so we can start building!

Outreach Program is the back-to-school program for Children's Hospital. Please bring items for this pledge for these children and the wagons.

Debbie LeBlanc is selling Entertainment books for $20.00 each

Program: Changes to Reseller Permits – Sonja Barker

Senate Bill 6173 effective 01/01/10

Now the reseller Certificates are called reseller Permits

There are no fees anymore, but you will need to do the paperwork to obtain them

Going from an honor system to a managed system

All Permits will be able to be verified online

You must keep reseller Permits on file for 5 years

dor.wa.gov and go through "my account"

We had a Chocolate Turtle Brownies and Orange Brownies made by Julie Putman that were auctioned off resulting in a CFDD donation total of $53!

The 50/50 drawing was won by Laura Catherall who took home $27

Meeting adjourned 7:40pm
